We Dedicate This Book To You

You

Written especially for you by
Ella jo Velthoen

Sometimes you feel you've never been complete,
For life is filled with fears.
Your questions go unanswered,
And haunt you through the years.
Kindergarten, oh so lonely,
Strange faces all around.
You listen to her stories,
Your blanket on the ground.
First grade is filled with wonder,
As games and "Share and Tell."
Second grade you learn sweet songs,
And play "Farmer in the Dell."
Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth grade,
You know who is your friend.
Seventh and Eighth grade,
This all comes to an end.

Freshman year you're lonely,
You've hit the bottom now.
They tell you to go away,
You don't ask why but how.
Your football team is bad,
They don't know how to play.
They seem to look worse,
Each and everyday.
The girls look at you strangely,
The boys they make fun.
And you count the seconds,
Until this day is done.
You don't dress like upperclassmen,
You seem to have no style.
And no one knows your name,
They even lose your file.
You sing off key in Glee,
And don't know the school cheer.
You're out of step while marching,
And welcome end of year.

Sophomore year has to be better,
You think you have the feel.
And there are other Freshmen,
So now you're the big wheel.
Now you have courage,
To even go on a date.
Go to a dance at the gym,
But you have a flat, you're late.
You make your first speech,
You stutter, you get dry.
You learn to hate your English,
You skip your class and lie.
You get to meet new teachers,
Who ask too much from you.
And when you do your best,
They give you more to do.
Your hair grows just perfect,
Although you can not see.
The teachers say cut it,
But you protest, "It's Me."

Of course you're older now,
And in your Junior year.
You are popular, interesting,
Having all friends near.
You find you're lonely,
There's so much for you to do.
You have a real love one,
And things are right for you.
Your class holds the bonfire,
It must be ninety feet tall.
Your King and Queen get the votes,
At the K-Q ball.
The Homecoming parade is rained out,

It happens every year.
But your class float wins the prize,
You celebrate with a beer.
You hold the J-S Prom,
The hall looks like a mess.
You scrimp with every penny,
It's New Orleans, more or less.
Who didn't get the plants,
You feel some are gone.
So you run off to a quiet place,
And get some funeral lawn.
The awning starts to droop,
It's only 5 past 4.
The paper that was the sky,
Is suddenly the floor.
The wishing well is too big,
It can't fit through the door.
The angel can't be lifted,
It weighs a ton or more.
You scream we've got no time,
And we need someone now.
Suddenly it's finished and perfect,
You don't know why or how.

You're Seniors now and wiser,
You feel you've just begun.
You look back at the times,
The hard days and fun.
Your days are all too short,
Some guys go off to war.
You wave good-bye to them,
Will you see them anymore?
Your grades are pretty fair,
You understand your math.
You can take or leave school,
You can take any path.
Your face is much older,
You have the taste of life.

Your best friend leaves you,
To take a husband or wife.
Sometimes you think of college,
You think of all your dreams.
You watch the guys in P.E.
You see your football teams.
Gee, teachers aren't half bad,
Some are pretty smart.
You see the years of teaching,
And they grow near your heart.
Graduation's almost here,
Seems it came too fast.
They read the names off slowly,
They stumble on your last.
You sing the school song,
You stand up with your friends.
They say this is just the start,
But really it's the end.
Good-byes are said softly now,
You smile and speak.
Words were never good with you,
Your voice is low and weak.
You'll come back here no more,
There is no real reason.
Your team is split up,
There's no more football season.
They say you were the best,
The school has ever had.
And you should be happy,
But you feel strangely sad.
There will be more to take your place,
More shall walk these halls.
But it will end for them as you,
Once they have passed these walls.
You watch your friends walk away,
They are women, They're men.
You smile as they pass you by,
And you're alone again.....

Ernie,
well, it's been a little more bearable in this that day you brought Marcia to Kathy's house? Well, don't tell anybody, but we walked back

OUR BAND does its thing.

Homecoming and the Wonderful World of Disney was the end of a very exciting and GREAT week. With the preparation of the floats and other participants for the parade on Friday and, of course, the BIG GAME against Denair (which we won) all was a very busy week. EXCITEMENT! EXCITEMENT! EXCITEMENT! Most especially the grand and glorious homecoming dance.

One would have to admit the excitement reached a peak when on Thursday, October 12, the rally for the Queen's Coronation was held in the gym. Skits, yells, and speeches started the rally off and the crowning glory was the announcement of Allyn Wood's name as OUR 1972 HOMECOMING QUEEN.

The day has gone and now in its place is a lasting memory and to add a special spark to that memory--YOU WERE THERE!!!

A Skit for the enjoyment of all. Hey Jette! Maybe they will let you play next year.

Football 1972

VARSITY COACH: MR. DAVIS

ASSISTANT: MR. STANLEY

The Indian Team of 1972 was a young team consisting of seven seniors, ten juniors, and one sophomore. Consequently, this year's varsity football team went through a rebuilding year of gaining experience. The team's record of 3-5-1 and a 2-3 in league was not completely representative of the caliber of team which we had. Two hard fought games were decided by one point, a 0-0 tie with Ione and a 13-12 loss to Le Grand. The Indians were victorious over Bret Harte, Denair, and Hilmar.

The team was led by Don Shipley, first team all Southern League, and the leading rusher in the Southern League and the District with 1,265 yards. First team all Southern League honors were also honored to Tom Schwartz at linebacker and Rick Atwell at safety. The play of seniors Mike Smith, Robert Tyhurst, Tom Schwartz, Curtis Cook, Keith Overby, and captains Randy Sutton and Don Shipley was commendable. The juniors: Rick Atwell, Tim Bunnell, Robin MacDonald, Allan Wall, Steve Chinchiolo, Dave Costa, Keith Deathridge, Ernie Campbell, Ernie Beeler, Don Eisenga and sophomore Bruce Sharp displayed improvement during the season.

Next season could be a very promising year for the Indians. Eleven returning lettermen with the upcoming Frosh.-Soph. team members provide a good foundation for building the 1973 varsity team. The key to success is attitude and effort. Football involves a great deal of preparation and off-season programs. This means that hard work and dedication are a MUST for improvement. Our Frosh-Soph. team knows what it is to be playing for the championship as they lost the championship game in the closing seconds against Central. Their attitude and enthusiasm coupled with the returning lettermen add up to an exciting and challenging year for 1973.

The Indians wrestled in the newly-formed Southern League competing against Denair, Hilmar, and Mariposa. The team consisted of five freshmen, three sophomores, and four juniors. Being a young team, the Indians were faced with a year of painful experience. As the season progressed, much improvement was seen in Victor Ayala, Don Gomes, Wayne Sutton, David Macedo, Jan and Jeff Dalman, Mike Denman, Ernie Campbell, Larry Erbe, and John Ramierz. The team was led by Juniors Allen Wall and Ernie Beeler. Allen Wall, team captain, led the team in pins, points, and wins.

AS THE 50's GO ROLLIN' ALONG

All the Ripon cats were "Beep-Boppin'" around as the 1950's Day started Rollin. School was buzzing with popular favorites such as: Good Night Irene, Rock Around the Clock, and You Ain't Nothin' But A Hound Dog. Some of the kids were really hep as they wore their cool threads, consisting of rolled up jeans, sweatshirts, bobby socks and oxfords. Linda Schemper dared the dress code by wearing a skirt that almost revealed her knees!! The day was topped off with a swinging rally which was "The Cat's Pajamas." Such an explosive rally you've never seen! The fuse was lighted when Ripon's own beloved Mascots came roaring into the gym on a mini-bike frame. Jette Halladay got things rolling with a tear-jerking farewell speech to the Seniors. The fuse was kept sizzling by numerous attempts by the cheerleaders to lead the crowd in some old time cheers. These usually ended in roars of laughter rather than cheers. Many of the highlights of the day were: "Cookie and His Comb;" Purified Poetry from a Bongo Beatin' Beatnick; "You Coyotes Ain't Nothin But A Hound Dog," rendered by "Teen Angel," "In The Traditional Malt Shop;" and a side-splitting (to say the least) performance by the Songleaders. The rally really exploded when, none other than, "Elvis Presley" appeared. By the time Elvis reached the center of the floor, the whole gym was enveloped by screams from half-crazed teen-agers. Though Elvis could not be heard above the screams of his fans, his movement and beckoning glances were enough to drive any girl wild. Though the 1950's day is in the past, it will be years before it is forgotten. It should take about that long for all concerned to recuperate.
